Until further notice, Doctor Melany Andino will be fulfilling the role of Harpy to the Domain. Until Miss.Lisper comes back and chooses (if she wants) to reclaim her title.

DiDi Mezzanotte has been declared as Talon to the domain as of the next gathering and does not have authority to conduct Talon business until then. If she is declared as Talon (it will depend on who is harpy at the time)

Congratulations to Dissonance and Wamu for becoming Assistants to the Keeper!

Congratulations to Senechal Lukas Gladow! We expect great things from him as he assists the Prince in his already tedious and surely exhausting job!

Congratulations to David Smythe and Dissonance for their promotions to Primogen to their clans which will also be confirmed at the next gathering!

Congratulations Acting Harpy Melany as well for her promotion to Whip for her clan!

REMINDER: Primogens/Whips Duty is to their clan...Harpy/Talon is to their Domain. If any feel as though someone is not fulfilling their duties appropriately then report it!

Traitor in our midst?

Ezekiel Mezzanotte has been accused of breaking the first tradition. He admitted to seeing kindred activities to the church under his alt. ID Brother Love. Claiming that he was fine and that the human priest was his ally...but still needed a back up plan? This was all defended by his sister DiDi, who did not have an issue, it seemed, with his breach. As such has been WARNED by scourge archangel for this breach in the tradition. Now why would he still be walking free and alive you might be asking? Information seems to be the only saving grace this kindred has. Supposedly there is a hunters meeting...that only he and his sister seem to know the location of. As such, until it is figured out what is happening please refrain from openly feeding, or doing anything that may make it clear there is more to you than there is. There are multiple viewpoints to this but the main one is to BE SAFE and do not attract any unnecessary attention!

Explosives in Elysium?!

Mezzanotte attacked AGAIN?!

WELCOME!

It seems like the Mezzanotte can't seem to catch a break when it comes to personal security..first being attacking in their uber..then being attacked outside of their nightclub THEN Primogen Ezekiel being attacked in transit to elysium?! It was discovered that a racoon planted a chemical bomb underneath the primogens car..which exploded and caused quite the commotion at the gathering i wonder who could have convinced the racoon to do something like that?. Keeper Nora has pledged to make things right and do what she can to prevent the situation from happening...but that job seems to be put on hold considering ezeziel cashed in on his boon and requested her to leave Elysium for 6 months.

Welcome to the domain the many new faces! We have had an influx of new kindred in the city! Keeper Nora has been more than accommodating for new kindred and giving them a safe place to reside until they get in touch with their primogens or are able to get acknowledged. Some would call it a hostel, we call it hospitable. She does our city a service and shows our newcomers that our keeper truly cares for her visitors. As such she and her ward are there to welcome you all to the City Beautiful!

I am the Drama!

Im sure it was a misunderstanding, right?

It seems there is no love lost between Senechal Lukas (Toreador) and DiDi Mezzanotte(Ventruie) or Ezekiel Mezzanotte(Ventruie). As words were thrown back and forth about stations and knowing them...it seems as though Ezekiel feels entitled to a few opinions when it comes to the Court. He stated and i quote "The prince is under the yoke of the primogen council". That came before a slew of disrespectful tones used towards the Senechal after He asked Mr. Mezzanotte about his plans for the hunters meeting and about what he told the church. And prior to all of this, he gave what seemed to be a rather offensive gift to the scourge archangel at least Elder Cierzo (Nos/Sheriff) thought so when the gift was publicly given in front of the entire gathering..moments before the explosion happened in the front of Elysium. One would think that this would worry everyone, however DiDi and Elder Tomasso mezzanotte didn't seem to worry that much, Didi stayed inside (which could be deemed absolutely understandable considering her being attacked not a week or so prior) but their elder seemed to disappear in the midst. I am sure there is a reason for all of this though, only time will tell! But it does beg the question Where is the prince in all of this though...one has to wonder...just some food for thought!

50 shades of...Purple!?

Keeper Nora has shown us the Brujah stubbornness is alive and well! While fulfilling her boon and exiting Elysium, it seems there is no lack of dwelling in Noras arsenal as she rolled into the Elysium sometime in the past few evenings with a large purple RV and set up shop in the parking lot of Elysium...which technically is not Elysium. Loopholes are fun sometimes aren't they? HOWEVER, After careful speculation and review.. I have seen that Ezekiel Mezzanotte Abused the use of his boon by banishing a kindred from the one place we are able to be safe. To take away our keeper from the Domain over something as trivial as a color and not giving Nora the chance to fulfill her promise before he acted was petty and childish. So as of today it is considered that

The Keeper has fulfilled her Boon and will now be allowed to resume her duties to the Domain. And i as Harpy, publicly Apologize and offer a Major to Miss Nora for not noticing the problem before she was made to leave her station and the safety of Elysium.

To all, this will not be tolerated again. Please keep in mind the ultimate goal is the safety and further progression of our kind..not to tear it down so the hunters can more easily pick us off.

Last!

Unacknowledge!

There has been an influx of kindred lately!! Asi said before WELCOME! But i feel as though it should be stated due to recent security issues with Hunters as well as the safety of those who are unacknowledged. It is wise for you to be either around your acknowledged clan mates (preferably your primogen) or to stay around Elysium. There is no guarantee of your safety from anyone without acknowledgment from the prince. You are not protected by his rule if you are unacknowledged. The Scourge is very good at his job and takes it seriously. Please be advised to abide by the correct protocol.

SAFETY FIRST

Hunters have seemed to invade our beloved home! From the attack on the vault to the meeting mentioned by Ezekiel Mezzanotte. Supposedly they know what we look like and have hours upon hours of video surveillance they received or obtained (i wonder how?!). This calls for a serious revamp of security protocol and the Senechal and Prince are working on one that will hopefully lure the hunters away so we can continue to live our eternity in peace. Please have faith as our Prince and Senechal have only the safety and best interest of us all in mind!
