

Whispers in the Night

Orlando Hails a New Seneschal.

Welcome a new Seneschal to Orlando rumor has it that Elder Thaddeus will now be Seneschal of Orlando. Hail Elder Thaddeus, he will have a huge role to fill Seneschal Nora was one of the best seneschals that Orlando has had since Elder Lillian of the Roses departed Orlando. We hope he will be able to fill Lady Nora's shoes.

Venture stir up the Anarchs.

It saddens me to report that an a some Didi Mezzanotte was seen siding with the Anarchs in a brazen display. Didi Mezzanotte not only sided with the Anarchs but actually encouraged them to attack and fight the Camarilla. No matter how big a fan I am, I am 100% Camarilla and find this behavior shocking!! With this said please note that I am hereby Warning Didi Mezzanotte.

*Didi I'm sorry but Camarilla first!

Harpy Statures for the month:

Didi Mezzanotte Warned for siding with anarchists.

Prince Marcus the Unseen!

by: Lisper

Prince Marcus has been an amazing prince and can not be anyway faulted for anything going on in Orlando he has saved our reputation, and more then a few of our asses, but I have to ask where has he been? He has been absent several of our meet and greets, and has come in late to several of the regular meetings usually attended to by the a Prince. Maybe he's busy, maybe he is inattentive, or possibly he is being detained by someone or something.. he is defiantly keeping Orlando ship shape, other then those mysterious deaths being talked about in the news.. I have heard he is looking into them, and we know they started when the Venture came to town so far no connection has been found and we should not be so distrusting of strangers I am told. However I can't help but think if We saw Prince Marcus more, we could find the culprits and put whatever is going on out there to bed.

other notes: Let it be known that any Camarilla that offers any boon to anyone be it Camarilla or not, will be held by this Harpy to their owed boon. Also know that although I can label someone a boon breaker if they do not adhere to our laws in the first place it is impossible for me to really enforce or do anything against them.

Tibby

Tibby is the new Malkavian Primogen. He can be seen ridding his really awesome motorcycle around town. As skillful and curious as any cat.

He is great at puzzles and finding lost things.

Rumor has it he unlocked the previously unsolvable puzzle box and found and was able to keep the the prize inside.

Marry Marry Quite Contrary where do your roses grow? We've only seen a few about when will you put on a show?

Seriously tho where are the Roses and why aren't they hosting ??

I happily announce that the Venture are hosting the gathering tonight. May we all expect great things!!

Whispers:

Elder Tomosso and Elder Archangel got into a small tiff at Angelshare bar, I been assured that it has been fixed but be amiss not to mention it.
